

FATDOG'S

Faithful, Available, Teachable- Disciples of God

Character is the will to do what is right even when it's hard. You can lead without character, but you won't be a leader worth following. Andy Stanley

To do God's work is to do what is right when no one is looking... and doing what is right when everyone else is compromising. Charles Swindoll

1 Timothy 4:7 “Discipline yourself for the purpose of Godliness”

Ephesians 5: 1 & 2: “Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children and live a life of love, just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

Our desire for you as a leader for Team United: the joint ministry of Athletes in Action, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and Georgia Athletes Outreach.

1. You must be born-again according to John 3:3-6.
2. Be willing to live a life worthy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ-Phil. 1:27
You should be a witness on & off the field I Timothy 4:12
3. Make attending a local church a priority in your life- Hebrews 10:24-25
4. Faithfully attend Sunday night's leadership meeting and Team United monthly meetings.
5. Play your sport for an audience of one- Colossians 3:23-24
6. Make yourself available to God by reaching out to your teammates in order to have a fruitful ministry John 15: 1-8
7. Be faithful, available & teachable. Make time for meetings with the staff.
 - a. Personal time- accountability, life on life ministry
 - b. Ministry time- equip leaders for evangelism & discipleship
 - c. Prayer time- making time to pray for each other & the lost
